The 2004 Masters Golf Tournament!

April 5 - 11, 2004

Augusta National Golf Club

As play begins at The Masters, the golfer in all of us is reborn. After a long winter's wait, The Masters Golf Tournament offers us the beginning of a new golf season. Dogwoods and Magnolias in full bloom, pristine green fairways lined with tall, stately Georgia Pines, and the world's greatest golfers at the world's most prestigious event -- this is The Masters Golf Tournament. No other golf tournament in the world can match its pageantry.

Augusta National, designed by Allister MacKenzie, would be a treasured golf course even if it never hosted a professional golf event. It is one of the truest tests of the sport. The manicured fairways and rough remove any possibility of bad lies, or luck from the game. The par 5's are reachable in two but not without significant risk. The par 3's may lack inordinate length, but more than make up for it with undulating greens that challenge even the world's greatest putters.

If you have never been to Augusta National and The Masters Golf Tournament, you can't fully appreciate the greatness of the course or the event. On merit, Augusta National is world-renowned. In person, it is overwhelming. While a Masters Golf Tournament telecast is memorable - attending The Masters Golf Tournament may be the most unforgettable experience of your life.

SGH Golf can put you into this special sports environment. Over the years, we have been able to develop the necessary relationships needed to package the most prestigious event in all of golf, indeed in all of sports, The Masters Golf Tournament. You, the client, are provided with a unique blend of accommodations, guaranteed tickets, Magnolia Manor luxury hospitality building, first class transportation, quality dining, golf at some of the finest courses in the South, and SGH travel directors available to make your stay more enjoyable.

Everyone should have the opportunity to experience The Masters Golf Tournament. Why not make this your year?

The Masters Golf Tournament is also the ultimate destination for your next incentive trip, meeting or customer appreciation trip.
